The Judge—Why Conductors Say: "The End of the Line!"—by M.B.

LOCAL NOTES

Mrs. Kate Dales, Miss Ruth Greenlund, and their guest, little Harriet Steffansen of Riverside, and Hugo F. Schmidt saw Gertrude Ederle in Los Angeles Sunday, and later visited Exposition Park.

Cancel Boulevard Stop at Arlington And Carson Street

Elimination of the boulevard stop at the corner of Carson street and Arlington avenue was ordered Tuesday night by the Board of Trustees. Trustee Willis Brooks declared that no stop is now needed at the crossing, and introduced the resolution, which was seconded by Trustee Tim Foley. A check of traffic during two days showed that only about three cars a minute cross the intersection in each direction.

LOCAL NOTES

Guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ganster were Misses Clara and Vina Stepan and Tom Stykes, of Los Angeles.

LOCAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Splittstoesser and daughter Irene, of Hill street, were entertained Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Merkle of Wilmington.

The WILLARD "B" POWER UNIT

It takes power right from the house-lighting circuit—and gives perfect reception, without a trace of hum. No tubes to buy—no acid to spill. Current is rectified by a harmless solution. There's ample power here for all types of sets up to and including ten-tube models—also for those using power tubes.

Ask for particulars about this "B" Power Unit—and about Willard Radio Batteries, too.
